Pastor's Notes

Memorial Day is always a special time in our country and our community, with the Mineola Memorial Day Parade returning after a two-year absence due to the pandemic. Family and friends come together to celebrate the unofficial start to the summer season. But far more important is to remember; mindfully and prayerfully, those men and women who sacrificed their lives in military service to our nation and to the world. We would never be able to embrace the liberties we have today, had it not been for the commitment and courage of members of the USA armed forces, who died in the never-ending fight for freedom. Enjoy the Blue Angels flying over Jones Beach, and the Navy ships sailing into NYC harbor for Fleet Week. But never lose sight of the American flags planted over the graves in our military cemeteries. (P.S....Also remember in prayer those one-million-plus victims of covid in our country, along with their families who mourn their loss.)

Pentecost Sunday on June 5th brings out the brilliant color of red in the church sanctuary, as a sign of the tongues of fire that came upon the apostles, 50 days after the triumphant Resurrection of Christ rising on Easter Sunday. Red is also reminiscent of both Palm Sunday and Good Friday; recalling the blood of Jesus upon the Cross for the salvation of souls. As the priests wear red on the altar for Mass on Pentecost, so too we encourage all of you to dress in bright red, as a sign that we are all united in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, who nourishes us with His Body & Blood in the Eucharist. May this celebration of the birth of the Church on Pentecost, continue right through Trinity Sunday on 12 June; rejoicing in the mystery of Father, Son, Spirit!!!

Corpus Christi Sunday on 19 June is also Fathers' Day this year throughout our nation. As we see in the following page, Bishop Anjay will be celebrating the 11:30 AM Mass for our joyful feast day, along with blessing our dads, grand-fathers and Communion Ministers. The Eucharistic Procession will culminate with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament; and we encourage everyone to wear summer white. Please come to celebrate with all of our cultural/liturgic communities, as one Body of Christ united in the love of Jesus, Mary and Joseph!!!

Yours in Christ,

Father Malcolm

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL 2022-2025

With the celebration of The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, on June 19, 2022, the Bishops of the United States are calling for a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The initiative is an expression of desire to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with the Lord in the Eucharist. It is so very much needed, especially after the challenging times of pandemic and forced disconnection.

Over the next three years, dioceses will receive support and be encouraged to revive their sacramental spirituality by organizing Eucharistic Congresses and processions. Parishes will also be urged to increase or begin Eucharistic Adorations and Holy Hours. There will be a revival of faithful adherence to the liturgical norms in all their richness – the ars celebrandi. Families and friends will be invited to gather in small groups to learn and pray together. Filled with the flame of charity from the reception of Jesus in the Eucharist, missionary disciples will go to the margins, recognizing the mystery of Jesus' presence in the poor. All of this will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years. From July 17-21, 2024, thousands of Catholics will journey on pilgrimage to Indianapolis to personally encounter Jesus in the Eucharist and be sent back out into their parishes and communities.

All parishioners from all languages are invited to celebrate with our own Bishop Anjay on Sunday 19 June at the 11:30AM Mass. We will recommission all our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, followed by a short Procession of the Blessed Sacraments through the streets of Mineola. Let us rejoice as the only diocesan parish of Corpus Christi: You Together Are My Body!!!

The USA in Mourning

For ten days our American flags stood at half-mast, for the 10 African American men and women who innocently died in the violence of Buffalo, New York. Now our flags have fallen again for the nineteen children and two teachers who were killed in the school of Uvalde, Texas. God is watching. But is God listening to our prayers and pleas for peace? Don't give up on the power of prayer, and the goodness of people in our country. The Lord expects us to be both contemplative in our faith, and active in our nation's pursuit of truth and justice.

Memorial Day

Monday 30 May, 2022

Let us always remember those who gave their lives in military service to our nation and our world. Please come to Mass at 7:30 AM & 12:30 PM, in thanking God for our country and our freedom. The Memorial Day parade in Mineola begins at 11:00 AM at Wilson Park (unless it rains). A memorial service will be held in the band shell at the Memorial Park at around 12 noon. Be proud to fly your American flag outside your homes! The Parish Office will be closed.

Pentecost Sunday

June 5, 2022

June 5 marks the Solemnity of Pentecost, and the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles; the very birth of the Church. A “strong-driving wind” accompanied by “tongues of fire” were the manifestations of the power and the gift of the Spirit of Christ.

May the Holy Spirit truly give us all a new birth of life throughout all the earth, and lead us into the light of God’s peace and love! May the Paraclete help all people of every nation, language and culture, to understand one another in the spirit of truth and freedom!

Re: Memorial Day Moments of Remembrance

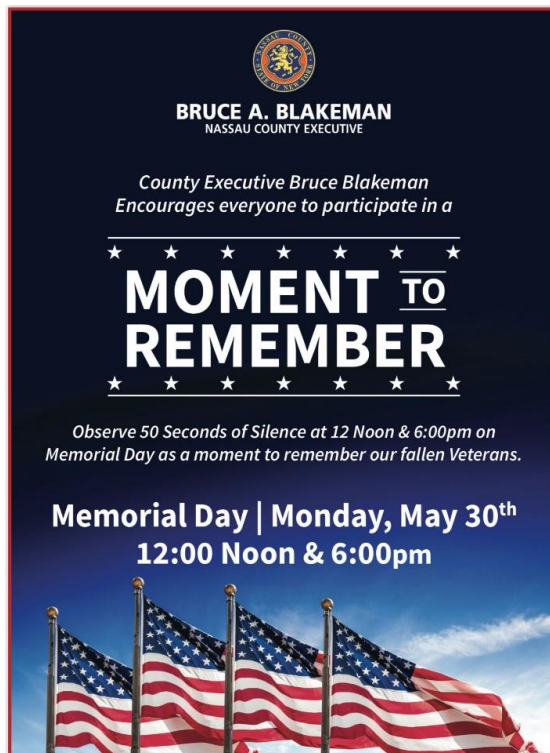

Nassau County has announced two County-wide 50-second moments of silence on Memorial Day, May 30th to honor the men and women who laid down their lives in service to our nation. The first moment of silence will be at 12 Noon, followed by the second at 6:00 pm. During those 50 seconds at 12 Noon and 6:00 pm on May 30th, Fire Departments, Police Cars, and Volunteer Ambulance Corps will sound their sirens and horns to remind residents to pause and remember our nation’s fallen heroes.

All parishes in Nassau and Suffolk are encouraged to publicize this initiative and perhaps dedicate the Angelus bells at 12 Noon and 6:00 pm on May 30th to the prayerful memory of our deceased servicemen and women, especially in gratitude for their defense of our religious liberties.

Nassau County provided the attached graphic shown below if you choose to use it.

Corpus Christi's 2022 "Continuing the Educational Mission" Scholarship Award

We are pleased to announce again this year the Corpus Christi "Continuing the Educational Mission" Scholarship award. Even though our beloved parish school has closed, the mission of educating the young people of our parish continues. It is in this spirit that the scholarship award has been established.

A committee of educators from grammar school, middle school, high school and college as well as members from the financial community was formed and worked on this program for several months and developed this scholarship.

Based upon the success from past years, we will continue to offer three scholarships this year:

- One for a student parishioner attending a Catholic grammar or middle school.
- One for a student parishioner attending a Catholic High School
- One for a student parishioner attending, full time, a college or university.

Now three young people from our parish will each be awarded a scholarship toward their education.

A scholarship award of $4,000 will be given to a student in grades 6, 7 or 8 who will be attending starting September 2022 a local Catholic school for the academic school year 2022/2023.

A scholarship award of $5,000 will be given to a student who will be attending a local Catholic High School starting September 2022 for the academic school year 2022/2023.

A scholarship award of $6,000 will be given to a matriculated college student carrying a full time course load of a minimum 12 credits/semester who will be attending starting September 2022, a 2-4-year college or university for the academic school year 2022/2023.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the school, college or university in two equal payments, one half for the fall semester and the second half for the spring semester or if the academic year is divided into trimesters, half will be paid in the first trimester and the second half paid in the third trimester.

The funding for these scholarships will come directly from the investment income earned from the proceeds of the sale of the Searing Avenue properties and not from any weekly or special parish collections. The announcement of the scholarship recipients will be made later this summer on or around July 31. The scholarship is for one year. Applications must be submitted to the rectory by July 1, 2022.

For information on the eligibility requirements, application, timelines for submission and all related documents for this scholarship award, please visit our parish website at www.corpuschristi-mineola.net. This information will be posted on the site shortly.

Please direct any questions regarding this scholarship to Deacon Brian Mannix at the rectory, 516-746-1223.

“He is the vine and we are the branches”. To bear the fruit He is talking about will happen only when we are connected to the One who is the vine.

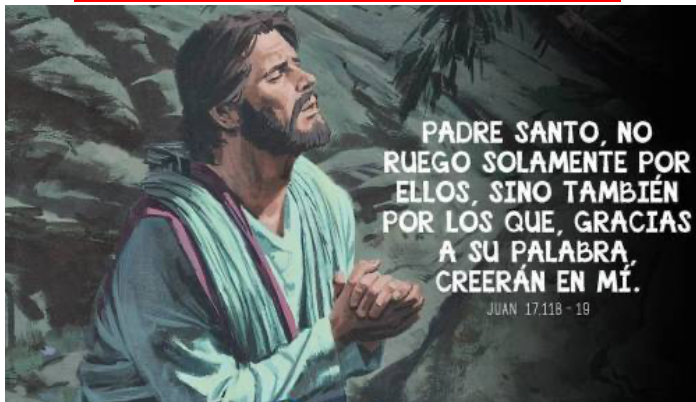

One of the greatest compliments we can pay to another person is to give them our full and undivided attention. There is not doubt about Jesus’ attentiveness to us. How attentive are we to Him? It is one thing to say prayers but quite another to use those words to deepen our faith, hope, and love. Over and over in the Gospels we see Jesus going to a quiet place to pray, to be renewed and nurtured in His love for the Father. What deepens and nourishes our faith is our heightened awareness of God’s presence to us and our joy in His presence...

Sometimes we get so caught up in the “doing“ that we forget simply taking time to be with God. When things get hectic, the first temptation is to skip prayer time. Our deadlines and schedules don’t change, but it seems prayer time can be dispensable. If we are to maintain vision in our lives; if we are to be men and women who worship God with our hearts, we must give attention to our prayer. To give attention to prayer means being ready to sit still in the presence of God, allowing His presence to seep into us and quietly challenge us. It is through prayer that we make Jesus Christ a point of reference.

VII DOMINGO DE PASCUA

EVANGELIO SEGÚN SAN JUAN 17. 20-26

En aquel tiempo, Jesús levantó los ojos al cielo y dijo: Padre, no sólo te pido por mis discípulos, sino también por los que van a creer en mí por la palabra de ellos, para que todos sean uno, como tú, Padre, en mí y yo en ti somos uno, a fin de que sean uno en nosotros y el mundo crea que tú me has enviado. Yo les he dado la gloria que tú me diste, para que sean uno, como nosotros somos uno. Yo en ellos y tú en mí, para que su unidad sea perfecta y así el mundo conozca que tú me has enviado y que los amas, como me amas a mí. Padre, quiero que donde yo este, estén también conmigo los que me has dado, para que contemplen mi gloria, la que me diste, porque me has amado desde antes de la creación del mundo. Padre justo, el mundo no te ha conocido; pero yo sí te conosco y éstos han conocido que tú me enviaste. Yo les he dado a conocer tu nombre y se los seguiré dando a conocer, para que el amor con que me amas esté en ellos y yo también en ellos.

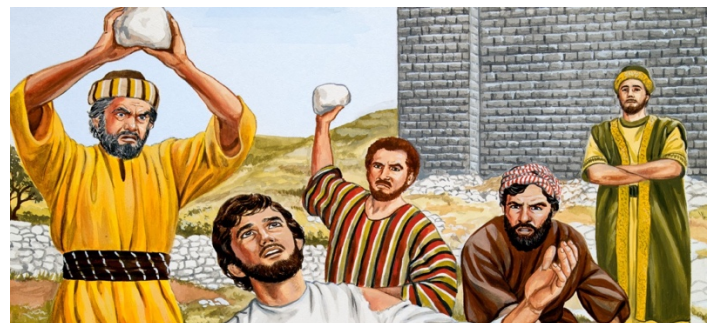

Juan 17 es la culminación de los discursos de despedida de Jesús a sus discípulos que comienzan en Juan 13 y anticipan la glorificación de Jesús, o sea, su muerte y resurrección (Juan 18-20). Todo el capítulo 17 es una oración por los discípulos que están junto con Jesús en el momento en que la pronuncia. Y ahora, nos llega e turno a los lectores de Juan – y a nosotros: Pero no ruego solamente por estos, sino también por los que han de creer en mí por la palabra de ellos. El ruego de Jesús es por la unidad de todas las persona creyentes, incluyendo a las presentes con Jesús y a las futuras: para que todos sean uno. Jesús ora al Padre para que los suyos sean perfectamente uno: quiere que sean entre ellos uno, como Él y el Padre. Es su última petición antes de la Pasión, la más sentida: que haya comunión en la Iglesia. La comunión es esencial. El enemigo de Dios y del hombre, el diablo, no puede nada contra el Evangelio, contra la humilde fuerza de la oración y de los sacramentos, pero puede hacer mucho daño a la Iglesia tentando nuestra humanidad. Provoca la presunción, el juicio sobre los demás, las cerrazones y las divisiones. Él mismo es el que divide y a menudo comienza haciéndonos creer que somos buenos, quizá mejor que los demás: así tiene el terreno listo para sembrar la cizaña. Es la tentación de todas las comunidades y se puede insinuar también en los carismas más bonitos de la Iglesia.

La segunda lectura de este domingo es la conclusión del libro de Apocalipsis. Nos habla que Jesús es el ALFA y la OMEGA, el PRINCIPIO y el FIN. En esa lectura vemos a toda la Iglesia en el tránsito. Tanto más cuanto que el Señor le ha prometido su próxima venida y ha aumentado en ella el deseo del árbol de la vida y de la gloria de la ciudad eterna.

La primera lectura de este domingo, del libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, nos habla del martirio de Esteban, el primer mártir de la Iglesia.

DOMINGO VII DA PÁSCOA

EVANGELHO DE SÃO JOÃO 17. 20-26

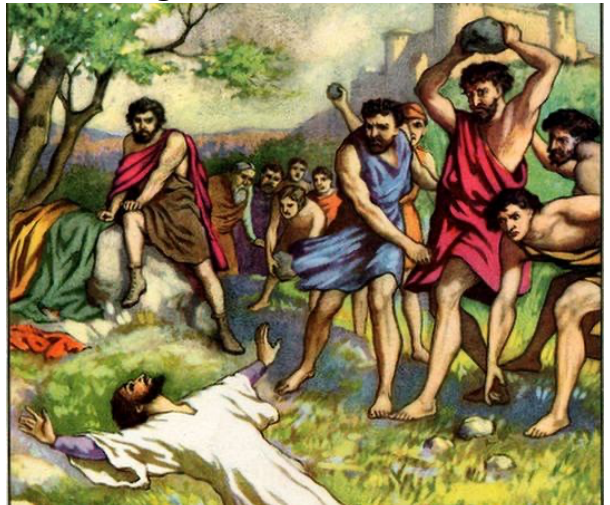

Naquele tempo, Jesus ergueu os olhos ao Céu e disse: Pai santo, não pelo somente por eles, mas também por aqueles que vão acreditar em mim por meio da sua palavra, para que eles sejam todos um, como tu, Pai, o és em mim e eu em ti, para que também eles sejam um em nós e o mundo acredite que tu me enviaste. Eu dei-lhes a glória que tu me deste, para que sejam um como nós somos um: eu neles e tu em mim, para que sejam consumados na unidade e o mundo reconheça que tu me enviaste e que os amaste como a mim. Pai, quero que onde eu estou, também estejam comigo os que me deste, para que vejam minha glória, a glória que me deste, por me teres amado antes da criação do mundo. Pai justo, o mundo não te conheceu, mas eu conheci-te e este reconheceram que tu me enviaste. Dei-lhes a conhecer o teu nome e dá-lo-ei a conhecer, para que o amor com que me amaste esteja neles e eu esteja neles.

No Evangelho deste domingo, Jesus pede a unidade dos cristãos, pelos que crerão em mim: a fim de que todos sejam um. Esta unidade é um reflexo, na Igreja, da união de Cristo com o Pai, e, por este motivo, é um testemunho que invoca a fé em Jesus como Deus e como enviado do Pai: ...para que o mundo creia que tu me enviaste...A unidade dos cristãos – na fé comum, na caridade fraterna – é um sinal da presença de Cristo na História. Houve época em que os perigos que ameaçavam a unidade dos cristãos eram as questões religiosas. Hoje, não parece que sejam estas as coisas que nos dividem. O que nos divide são as diversas classes sociais, às quais pertencemos, que faz com que os mais ricos desprezem os mais pobres.

A leitura deste domingo é tirada do fim do livro do Apocalipse. Ele termina como começou, com a apresentação do Senhor Jesus, o Primeiro e o último, que há de levar a História da Salvação ao seu ponto culminante. É a última palavra da Sagrada Escritura. É a espera da última vinda de Cristo na sua glória.

A Primeira Leitura deste domingo nos apresenta o martírio de Santo Estevão, o primeiro mártir cristão. Paulo está presente e apoia o assassinato de Estevão. Ele irá se converter e dará também a sua vida para testemunhar a sua fé em Jesus Cristo.
