STEWARDSHIP
Managing God's Gifts To Us

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."
- MATTHEW 22:37

Do you put other "gods" before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? Putting God first through stewardship helps keep us from becoming a slave to our possessions and to our pride.

Church Parking

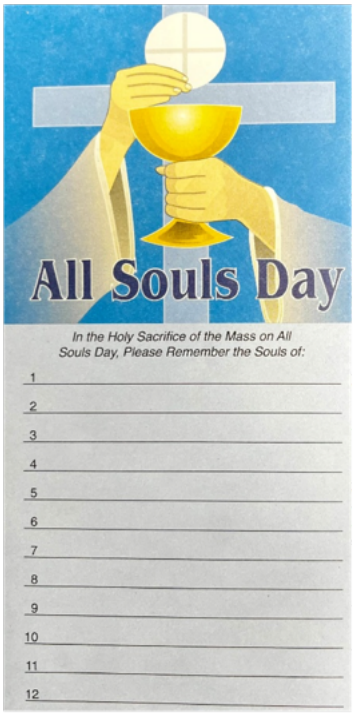

With more people coming to Masses on weekends (Thank God), parking can be a challenge! In addition to parking on both sides of Garfield Avenue, please use our Church parking lot, our school lot, or the large parking field owned by the Chancery building on Willis Avenue across the street (thanks to their generosity!). Recently, no-parking/tow-away signs have been posted on the small lot by the Red Cross north of us, as well as the small lot by the new Korean Baptist Church south of us. You may run the risk of having your vehicle towed during Mass (God forbid!). Please park properly, so that you can participate peacefully in the Eucharist.

Don't Forget Your Baby Bottle!

The Life Center is a pregnancy care center that consults with women and men who are experiencing an unplanned pregnancy. Did you know that they provide?

- ✓ Free pregnancy test kits
- ✓ Free sonogram
- ✓ Maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals
- ✓ Medical care referrals
- ✓ Material aid including car seats, cribs, clothing, diapers, and many other needed baby items
- ✓ Male advocates available to speak with fathers

We are asking that you pick up a baby bottle and fill it with your donation.

(Please make checks payable to the Life Center of L.I.)

PLEASE RETURN THE BOTTLES ON

November 1st & 2nd

Most importantly, we are asking you to recite the prayer attached to the baby bottle. Prayers bring about something very powerful at the Life Center… a change of a mother's heart! We believe these prayers lead abortion-minded women to reach out to the Life Center in the beginning of their pregnancy.

Prayers also spiritually equip our consultants at the Life Center to say just the right words a mother or father may need to hear with hope of choosing the gift of life for their baby.

Let us pray for the conversion of a mother's heart to give the gift of life to her preborn baby!

XXX DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

EVANGELIO DE SAN MATEO 22, 34-40

En aquel tiempo, los fariseos, al oír que Jesús había hecho callar a los saduceos, se reunieron en un lugar y uno de ellos, un doctor de la ley, le preguntó para ponerlo a prueba: «Maestro, ¿cuál es el mandamiento principal de la ley?». Él le dijo: ««Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con toda tu mente". Este mandamiento es el principal y primero. El segundo es semejante a él: "Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo". En estos dos mandamientos se sostienen toda la Ley y los Profetas».

El evangelio de este domingo trae consigo una pregunta fundamental que, si bien no nace del deseo genuino de un fariseo por conocer lo más importante de lo que contiene la Ley, es ocasión propicia para Jesús señalar aquello de lo cual pende toda ella: el amor. La pregunta del fariseo tiene que ver con lo que es más importante, y la cuestión cobra otra dimensión si recordamos los 613 preceptos, en su mayoría negativos, mezclados entre disposiciones insignificantes y normas importantes que se encontraban en la ley. Si bien es cierto que tal número de leyes querían procurar hacer la voluntad de Dios, lo esencial se había difuminado en tantas disquisiciones. Lo esencial es lo que casi siempre está en el origen de las grandes empresas de la vida y que, andando el tiempo, va quedando lejano, desvirtuado o más de una vez olvidado, pero a lo que se necesita volver una y otra vez para remontar el camino. Jesús responde sin titubeos que lo más importante es el amor. Pero no un amor impersonal o teórico, sino un amor que implique todo el ser y que se dirija a Dios: "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con toda tu mente". El correlato de este mandamiento principal y primero es aquel que incluye al otro y a uno mismo: ««Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo"». Al hablar del amor a Dios, Jesús no está pensando en los sentimientos o emociones que pueden brotar de nuestro corazón; tampoco nos está invitando a multiplicar nuestros rezos y oraciones. Amar al Señor, nuestro Dios, con todo el corazón es reconocer a Dios como Fuente última de nuestra existencia, despertar en nosotros una adhesión total a su voluntad, y responder con fe incondicional a su amor universal de Padre de todos. Por eso añade Jesús un segundo mandamiento. No es posible amar a Dios y vivir de espaldas a sus hijos e hijas. Una religión que predica el amor a Dios y se olvida de los que sufren es una gran mentira. La única postura realmente humana ante cualquier persona que encontramos en nuestro camino es amarla y buscar su bien como quisiéramos para nosotros mismos.

Primera Lectura: Libro del Éxodo 22, 20-26.

Esto dice el Señor a su pueblo: No maltratarás, ni oprimirás a los extranjeros, ya que también ustedes fueron extranjeros en tierra de Egipto.
No harán daño a la viuda ni al huérfano. Si ustedes lo hacen, ellos clamarán a mí, y yo escucharé su clamor, se despertará mi enojo y a ustedes los mataré a espada; viudas quedarán sus esposas y huérfanos sus hijos. Si prestas dinero a uno de mi pueblo, al pobre, que tú conoces, no serás como el usurero, no le exigirás interés.
Si tomas en prenda el manto de tu prójimo, se lo devolverás al ponerse el sol, pues este manto cubre el cuerpo de tu prójimo y protege su piel; si no, ¿cómo podrá dormir? Si no se lo devuelves, él clamará a mí, y yo lo escucharé porque soy compasivo.

DOMINGO XXX DO TEMPO COMUM

EVANGELHO DE SÃO MATEUS 22, 34-40

Naquele tempo, os fariseus, ouvindo dizer que Jesus tinha feito calar os saduceus, reuniram-se em grupo, e um doutor da Lei perguntou a Jesus, para O experimentar: «Mestre, qual é o maior mandamento da Lei?». Jesus respondeu: «'Amarás o Senhor, teu Deus, com todo o teu coração, com toda a tua alma e com todo o teu espírito'. Este é o maior e o primeiro mandamento.
O segundo, porém, é semelhante a este: 'Amarás o teu próximo como a ti mesmo'. Nestes dois mandamentos se resumem toda a Lei e os Profetas».

Jesus está em Jerusalém, acompanhado pelos seus discípulos. Passa os dias no templo, a ensinar. Os líderes religiosos judaicos, por sua vez, aproveitam todas as oportunidades para questionar Jesus. A decisão deles está há muito tomada: a proposta que Jesus traz não vem de Deus e deve, portanto, ser rejeitada. Além disso, Jesus tem de ser silenciado, pois ameaça a religião e a ordem social. Os dirigentes da nação preparam-se, portanto, para O prender, levar a tribunal, condená-l'O de forma exemplar. É neste cenário que Mateus situa três controvérsias entre Jesus e os chefes religiosos judaicos. Essas controvérsias são, na realidade, armadilhas destinadas a apanhar Jesus em falso. A ideia é levá-lo a fazer afirmações que possam depois ser usadas contra Ele em tribunal. Depois das controvérsias sobre o tributo a César e sobre a ressurreição dos mortos, chega a controvérsia sobre o maior mandamento da Lei. Ao perguntar a Jesus qual é o maior mandamento da Lei, os fariseus procuram demonstrar que Jesus não sabe interpretar a Lei e que, portanto, não é digno de crédito. A questão do maior mandamento da Lei era uma questão bastante pertinente, objeto de debates intermináveis entre os fariseus e os doutores da Lei. Os mestres judaicos, na sua preocupação de propor a Lei de forma clara, tinham reduzido todo esse material legalista a um conjunto de 613 preceitos, dos quais 365 eram proibições e 248 eram ações a pôr em prática. Esta multiplicação dos preceitos legais lançava, evidentemente, a questão das prioridades: todos os preceitos têm a mesma importância, ou há algum que é mais importante do que os outros? É nessa discussão que os fariseus querem envolver Jesus "para O experimentar". Assim, na perspetiva de Jesus, o "amor a Deus" e o "amor aos irmãos" estão intimamente associados. Não são dois mandamentos diversos, mas duas faces da mesma moeda.

Na primeira leitura, do Livro do Êxodo, Deus que libertou os hebreus da escravidão do Egito pede ao Seu povo que edifique uma sociedade livre, justa, fraterna, solidária, humana. Só uma comunidade que defende os mais frágeis e desprotegidos – o estrangeiro, o órfão, a viúva, o pobre sufocado pela ganância dos poderosos – poderá viver em comunhão com Deus e dar testemunho no mundo da compaixão, da misericórdia, da bondade, da ternura, do amor de Deus.
