Pastor's Notes

I pray that the chill autumn air ushered in by November is warming your hearts and families, as we once again witness the wondrous transformation of the colors of Fall! The new statue of the Blessed Mother embracing the Christ Child will soon be placed on a pedestal in front of the Church on Willis Avenue, at the southern part of our property. The plaque on the base will be dedicated to Irene Krause, who lived all of her 96 years of life in Mineola. Even though she never married, Irene always had a profound love for Corpus Christi, the Eucharist and Mary; truly her family in faith. As I write this on All Saints Day, may Irene be lifted up by the choirs of angels, into that sacred place in paradise for all eternity!

I'm so glad to see so many people making use of the new wheel-chair ramp at the main entrance of the church. Our gratitude goes out to Dominic Lopes of our Portuguese community, who did so much of the planning and overseeing the construction/landscaping. Your generosity in our once-a-year fall fundraiser will go towards paying for the entire project. So turn in those raffle tickets with your donations to hopefully win $1,500/$1,000/$500 on Sunday 26th of November, the solemnity of Christ the King!!

Mass of Anointing of the Sick
Misa de Unción de los Enfermos
Missa de Unção dos Enfermos

19 November 2023, Sunday 11:30 AM

November always begins with the Catholic Holy Days of All Saints and All Souls (following “All-Halloween” for fun and safety of our children!). These sacred celebrations remind us of so many men and women of our past who lived out holiness in their humanity. We also recall the souls of our deceased loved ones whom we pray are resting in the peace of paradise.

As we approach the end of 2023, November brings to mind our need to care for our own bodies and souls; especially after surviving nearly three years of the pandemic that has taken so many lives. The Sacrament of the Anointing formerly was called “Extreme Unction”/Last Rites, and was given only to people dying. Priests still offer that gift to those facing death. But more so we anoint people who are sick and suffering; always in the name of Jesus Christ who constantly heals physically and spiritually throughout the Gospels.

We invite all our parishioners who feel the need for this healing Sacrament of anointing: the aged, the infirmed, those with serious medical or addiction issues, those with mental illness and those facing upcoming surgery; are all welcome to receive the Sacrament of the Sick.

Yours in Christ,

Father Malcolm

CATHOLIC CHARITIES Project Veterans Independence

This Veterans Day honor a veteran and show gratitude for their service by supporting programs that help them and their families.

"I was out of the service, out of a family, out of a job and out of a home. Catholic Charities found me and helped me to not only find a place to live - but they helped me to turn my life around."

- Charles, honorably discharged US Veteran

Charles spent 17 years deployed at military bases throughout the world. Returning home after an incident involving nerve gas, he began struggling with debilitating bouts of anxiety and depression.

His circumstances worsened and he couldn't maintain a steady job. Charles moved in with his mother, but within a year she died and his childhood home went into foreclosure.

Catholic Charities' Project Veterans' Independence, which guides homeless veterans into permanent housing so they can live independently and have access to support networks that get them back on their feet, reached out and helped Charles.

Your Gifts to the Catholic Ministries Appeal help to make this possible!

November 4th & 5th

The Life Center consults women and men who are experiencing an unexpected pregnancy. They provide free pregnancy test kits, free sonogram referrals, maternity housing with eligibility requirements referrals, medical care referrals, material aid, including car seats, cribs, clothing, diapers, and many other needed baby items.

Remember, all it takes is your change in a baby bottle and a heartfelt prayer to make a BIG, POSITIVE DIFFERENCE for all those we serve.

(Please make checks payable to the Life Center of L.I.)

May every drop of a coin remind you to pray to save a preborn baby from abortion and give a mother the opportunity to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ!

Please remember the sick in your daily prayers, including the following who have asked to be included in our list:

XXXI DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

EVANGELIO DE SAN MATEO 23, 1-12

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a las multitudes y a sus discípulos: “En la cátedra de Moisés se han sentado los escribas y fariseos. Hagan, pues, todo lo que les digan, pero no imiten sus obras, porque dicen una cosa y hacen otra. Hacen fardos muy pesados y difíciles de llevar y los echan sobre las espaldas de los hombres, pero ellos ni con el dedo los quieren mover. Todo lo hacen para que los vea la gente. Ensanchan las filacterias y las franjas del manto; les agrada ocupar los primeros lugares en los banquetes y los asientos de honor en las sinagogas; les gusta que los saluden en las plazas y que la gente los llame maestros. Ustedes, en cambio, no dejen que los llamen maestros, porque no tienen más que un Maestro y todos ustedes son hermanos. A ningún hombre sobre la tierra lo llamen padres, porque el Padre de ustedes es sólo el Padre celestial. No se dejen llamar guías, porque el guía de ustedes es solamente Cristo. Que el mayor de entre ustedes sea su servidor, porque el que se enaltece será humillado y el que se humilla será enaltecido”.

En el texto del evangelio de hoy se refleja la disputa concreta de la comunidad de Mateo con el judaísmo oficial. Refleja claramente las actitudes de Jesús con los dirigentes que le acusaron y le llevaron al juicio condenatorio. Jesús de una manera profética denuncia la incoherencia e hipocresía de los fariseos y maestros de la Ley que pervertían la enseñanza de Moisés y los profetas convirtiendo en una carga insoportable para la gente sencilla y humilde. Jesús ha dejado a los suyos, no un mensaje jurídico, sino la buena noticia del evangelio de la salvación. La Iglesia no se fundamenta, en su esencia, exclusivamente en una estructura jurídica como algunos pretenden. Jesús le ha dejado a los suyos, no un mensaje jurídico, sino la buena noticia del evangelio de la salvación. Le pertenece al pueblo de Dios ser una comunidad carismática: es decir, aquella que es conducida primera y principalmente por el Espíritu de Dios y de Jesucristo. Jesús se opone a la grandeza basada en los títulos. El importante es la grandeza del servicio. No vale buscar la grandeza de los títulos y primeros puestos. “El primero entre vosotros será vuestro servidor”.

La primera lectura, del profeta Malaquías, condena la religión sin sentido. El oráculo contra los sacerdotes, contra la hierocracia que se está imponiendo en Jerusalén fue la lucha de los verdaderos profetas, como Amós, como Isaías y Jeremías que eran mal vistos por la clase institucional. Los profetas siempre han tenido palabras contra la religión que se ha apartado del camino, que ha anulado la alianza entre Dios y la tribu sacerdotal de Leví. Malaquías reprocha los sacerdotes por no dar ejemplo de lo que predicán, de modo que dicen una cosa pero hacen otra, porque anuncian la Alianza, pero ellos no la cumplen.

En la segunda lectura Pablo dice que está dispuesto a entregarles su propia vida. Incluso llega a afirmar que él ha trabajado de día y de noche, a fin de no ser una carga para nadie.

DOMINGO XXXI DO TEMPO COMUM

EVANGELHO DE SÃO MATEUS 23, 1-12

Naquele tempo, Jesus falou à multidão e aos discípulos, dizendo: “Na cadeira de Moisés sentaram-se os escribas e os fariseus. Fazei e observai tudo quando vos disserem, mas não imiteis as suas obras, porque eles dizem e não fazem. Atam fardos pesados e põem-nos aos ombros dos homens, mas eles nem com o dedo os querem mover. Tudo o que fazem é para serem vistos pelos homens; alargam os filactérios e ampliam as borlas; gostam do primeiro lugar nos banquetes e dos primeiros assentos nas sinagogas, das saudações nas praças públicas e que os tratem por “Mestres”. Vós, porém, não vos deixeis tratar por Mestres, porque um só é o vosso “Mestre” e vós sois todos irmãos. Na terra não chameis a ninguém vosso “Pai”, porque um só é o vosso pai, o Pai celeste. Nem vos deixeis tratar por “Doutores”, porque um só é o vosso doutor, o Messias. Aquele que for o maior entre vós será o vosso servo. Quem se exalta será humilhado e quem se humilha será exaltado”.

O Evangelho deste domingo coloca-nos, mais uma vez, em Jerusalém, nos últimos dias antes da paixão e morte de Jesus. Os líderes da nação judaica, escudados nas suas certezas, convicções e preconceitos, continuam a recusar a proposta do Reino do qual Jesus fala e procuram uma forma de acusar Jesus e condená-lo. Ao longo do discurso de Jesus, Mateus põe na boca de Jesus palavras extremamente negativa sobre os escribas (especialistas da Bíblia) e fariseus. Dando demasiado relevo à Lei, eles esqueciam o essencial, o amor e a misericórdia. Jesus critica violentamente a sua pretensão à posse exclusiva da verdade, a sua incoerência, o seu exibicionismo, a sua insensibilidade ao amor e à misericórdia. É um convite aos crentes no sentido de não deixarem que atitudes semelhante se introduzam na família cristã e destruam a fraternidade, fundamento da comunidade.

Na primeira leitura um mensageiro de Jahwéh interpela os sacerdotes de Israel. Convocados por Deus para serem mensageiros do Senhor do universo, para ensinar a Lei e para conduzir o Povo para Deus, eles deixaram-se dominar por interesses egoístas, negligenciaram os seus deveres, desvirtuaram a Lei.

A primeira característica do apostolado de Paulo é delineada com uma imagem comovente: “para convosco, tessalonicenses – diz ele – tive os cuidados de uma mãe, nunca assumi atitudes duras ou arrogantes, mas sempre de grande doçura, e disposto até mesmo a dar-vos a minha própria vida”. O segundo elemento que qualifica a acção apostólica de Paulo é o desinteresse. “Foi a trabalhar noite e dia, para não sermos pesados a nenhum de vós, que vos pregámos o Evangelho”.
