Pastor's
Desk*

Thanks be to God and to our Blessed Mother Mary this month of May, that the devastating effects of the pandemic seems to be weakening, as more and more people are getting vaccinated. By 19 May we will be opening our parishes to 100% capacity, while still maintaining the three-fold disciplines of "masking, purifying, distancing". Gradually, we will come back with all our ministries and meetings; hopefully better than just returning to "normal". While the Catholic Churches and our Holy Father Pope Francis strongly recommend that everyone get vaccinated as a moral obligation to each other; nevertheless, we recognize and respect that some people will not receive the vaccine for many personal reasons. We will not be "segregating" parishioners at Mass; no separate sections for the "vaxed" and "non-vaxed". But we will continue to build up the Body of Christ as God's people united in the Spirit of Jesus. "If one member suffers, all the parts suffer; if one member rejoices, all the parts rejoices". Everyone (vaxed and non-vaxed) please be sure to wear your masks, especially when receiving Holy Communion, and on line in close proximity to others!

Sunday 23 May is the culmination of the Easter season, with the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost (50 days after the Resurrection), and the birth of our beloved Church. On this day, bishops give pastors and priests permission to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for adults who already have been Baptized and practicing their faith. Here in our parish we have 12 young adults who have come forward to confirm more deeply their commitment to Catholicism. Some are born right here in our nation; and others come from different countries, cultures, colors and languages. Precisely the same as the Biblical Pentecost 2000 years ago; the Spirit of God unites us all as the Body of Christ ("You Together are My Body") in the face of our differences. The Scriptural images of the Spirit's power (fire and wind) will hopefully bring about the reality of the Spirit's peace (dove and olive branch) to our world, our nation, our families and our souls.

Yours in Christ,
Father Malcolm

P.S. Three essential projects have been taking place in the parish this spring; all somewhat hidden behind the scenes. (1) Security cameras and systems are being installed throughout the church, school, offices, basement, and parking lots; primarily for your protection. (2) Asbestos removal and boiler replacements are in process for both the school and church/offices/rectory; primarily for your warmth in winter. (3) Smoke detectors and fire alarm systems are being upgraded within the parish complex; primarily for your safety.

“As a mom and a Catholic, I am so thankful that I know the Church is someplace I can turn, where there are people who care, people that I can talk to and who will help me if I am having trouble feeding my family.” - Susan, Parish Outreach Client

Dear Parishioner,

This month we celebrated Mother's Day and soon we will enjoy a long weekend in recognition of Memorial Day and all the brave men and women that gave up their lives for our country.

You have honored mothers and our veterans with your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal with your gifts and prayers, and I thank you. Your support ensures that moms in our Long Island community need not put their children to bed hungry or a grandmother worry about having a safe and affordable place to live or receive a hot meal. It helps to give homeless veterans a place to call home or receive a nutritious meal at a soup kitchen.

As we battle COVID-19 Catholic Charities and Outreach teams are still providing face-to-face, round-the-clock care at our homes for the developmentally disabled, the mentally ill, teen moms and their babies and seniors in enriched housing. And their staff and volunteers deliver meals and groceries to hundreds of homebound seniors throughout Long Island. We couldn't do this without you!

Additionally, we would like to bring your attention to this year's CMA theme, Creating Pathways of Faith. Each year, the CMA creates pathways of faith for our parish and all the parishes across Long Island through the ministries supported by this appeal. They also include programs for youth and young adults, education and formation of our children, lay leaders, deacons and seminarians of our diocese. More than 600,000 people are touched by the CMA each year.

As a pastor within our Diocese, one of my responsibilities is to spread the word about the CMA and the good works it does. Along with the wide-ranging services the CMA helps to fund, the CMA also helps our parish as well. Once we raise 80% of our goal, we start to receive a rebate. Everything we raise between 80% and 100% of our goal comes right back to us, along with 80% of every dollar raised over the 100% mark. We could use all the support we can, especially given the situation we experienced last year. So, I humbly ask you to please consider making a gift to this year's CMA, if you have not already done so.

Every gift is important and needed, no matter the size. Also, please remember that 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to serve the objectives, programs, and mission supported by the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

It is with deepest gratitude that I thank you most sincerely for your special consideration of this request to make a gift to the 2021 Catholic Ministries Appeal.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The role of the Society in Social welfare work is such, that when a family approaches the Society for help, we must determine their real problem and hopefully find a long term solution to it. In the meantime we will give immediate assistance. Our Conference does not have the resources in money or trained personnel to address special problems. If the Conference is unable to find a long term solution to a problem, we will refer the neighbor to a person or organization with some specialist skills. The Corpus Christi Conference works closely with the Society's Store on Jericho Tpk. in Garden City Park. For Assistance please call 516-248-4858

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTÉS

EVANGELIO SEGÚN SAN JUAN 20, 19-23

Al anoecer del día de la resurrección, estando cerradas las puertas de la casa donde se hallaban los discípulos, por miedo a los judíos, se presentó Jesús en medio de ellos y les dijo: “La paz esté con ustedes”. Dicho esto, les mostró las manos y el costado. Cuando los discípulos vieron al Señor, se llenaron de alegría. De nuevo les dijo Jesús: “La paz esté con ustedes. Como el Padre me ha enviado, así también los envío yo”. Después de decir esto, sopló sobre ellos y les dijo: “Reciban al Espíritu Santo. A los que les perdonen los pecados, les quedarán perdonados y a los que no se los perdonen, les quedarán sin perdonar”.

El nombre Pentecostés viene del griego Pentekostos, que significa cincuenta. Según el libro de Exodos, se celebraba al término de la cosecha de la cebada y antes de comenzar la del trigo. En su origen tenía un sentido fundamental de acción de gracias por la cosecha recogida, pero pronto se le añadió un sentido histórico: se celebraba en esta fiesta el hecho de la alianza y el don de la ley en el monte Sinaí. La fiesta de Pentecostés es uno de los Domingos más importantes del año, después de la Pascua. Es el inicio de la Iglesia de Cristo.

La experiencia de Jesús resucitado siempre es novedosa y sorprendente. Los discípulos se encontraban encerrados, asustados por miedo a los judíos. De forma misteriosa, Jesús se coloca en medio de ellos. Este encuentro cambia la vida de los discípulos, quienes se alegran al ver al Señor. Cristo, además, los ofrece su paz, los confía la continuación de su misma misión, sopla sobre ellos insuflándolos el Espíritu Santo y los da el poder de perdonar los pecados. Ya no estaban solos, tenían con ellos a Jesús. Afirmer que Cristo ha resucitado no significa cruzarnos de brazos, sino anunciar en el día a día y en los distintos ambientes en los que nos encontremos. Jesús nos regala el Espíritu Santo, capaz de convertirnos en criaturas nuevas, que nos fortalecerá para la misión, facilitará la comprensión de la identidad de Jesús y el sentido profundo de sus palabras. El Espíritu es el don supremo que Dios nos concede. La Iglesia nos propone para esta celebración en la que culminan las fiestas pascales la oración: “Ven, Espíritu Santo, llena los corazones de tus fieles. Envía, Señor, tu Espíritu, que renueva la faz de la tierra”.

Dones del Espíritu Santo

De la primera carta del apóstol san Pablo a los corintios: 12, 4-11. Partitura: José Antonio Morales Escobar. Coro Mensajeros del Espíritu Santo Hermanos: Hay diferentes dones, pero el Espíritu es el mismo. Hay diferentes servicios, pero el Señor es el mismo. Hay diferentes actividades, pero Dios, que hace todo en todos, es el mismo. En cada uno se manifiesta el Espíritu para el bien común. Uno recibe el don de la sabiduría; otro, el don de la ciencia.

DOMINGO DE PENTECOSTES

EVANGELHO SEGUNDO SÃO JOÃO 20, 19-23

Na tarde daquele dia, o primeiro da semana, estando fechadas as portas da casa onde os discípulos se encontravam, com medo dos judeus, veio Jesus, apresentou-se no meio deles e disse-lhes: “A paz esteja convosco”. Dito isto, mostrou-lhes as mãos e o lado. Os discípulos ficaram cheios de alegria ao verem o senhor. Jesus disse-lhes de novo: “A paz esteja convosco. Assim como o Pai me enviou, também eu vos envio a vós. Dito isto, soprou sobre eles e disse-lhes: Recebei o Espírito Santo: àqueles a quem perdoardes os peados ser-lhes-ão perdoados; e àqueles a quem os retiverdes ser-lhes-ão retidos”.

Com a solenidade de Pentecostes, estamos concluindo o Tempo Pascal, suplicando a presença do Espírito Santo. Enviai o vosso Espírito, e renovai a face da terra, rezamos no Salmo 103. Pentecostes era uma festa judia, celebrada cinquenta dias após a Páscoa judia. Era, originalmente, uma festa de caráter agrícola, pois nela se ofertavam a Deus as primícias dos campos. Com o passar do tempo, passou a ser dedicada à celebração da Aliança do monte Sinai. Conforme narra o livro dos Atos dos Apóstolos, na primeira leitura de hoje, quando era celebrada a antiga festa de Pentecostes, em Jerusalém, no início da pregação apostólica, aconteceu a vinda do Espírito Santo sobre os discípulos reunidos no cenáculo.

Por isso, Pentecostes recebeu um novo significado para os cristãos, passando a celebrar a vinda do Espírito Santo. O livro dos Atos dos Apóstolos mostra o Espírito iluminando e animando os discípulos a anunciar o Evangelho, unindo os que falavam línguas diferentes e fazendo-os compreender a pregação dos Apóstolos, pois cada um ouvia os discípulos falar em sua própria língua. A unidade das línguas, dom do Espírito, se contrapõe à divisão ocorrida em Babel, na construção da torre.

Na segunda leitura desse domingo, São Paulo se refere à unidade na diversidade de dons e ministérios provenientes do mesmo Espírito, em vista do bem comum, motivando os cristãos a viverem unidos. São Paulo compara a Igreja ao corpo de Cristo. Assim como o corpo é um só e tem muitos membros, e todos os membros, apesar de numerosos, constituem um só corpo, assim também sucede com Cristo.

AVISO MUITO IMPORTANTE

Desde março do ano passado, começamos a gravar a missa em português. Com a festa de Pentecostes encerramos a gravação da missa em português e espanhol. Cumprimos a nossa missão. Agora, com a abertura quase total das igrejas, não há mais a necessidade de continuar as gravações. Continuaremos a gravar a missa em inglês por algumas semanas, porque as pessoas idosas americanas ainda sentem medo de virem à missa.
