STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Sharing Time, Talent and Treasure

"Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them and they all drank from it." - Mark 14:23

Jesus, the perfect steward, gave thanks, just before He gave Himself up for us, completely for our salvation. He offers us the same chance to drink from His cup. In the bread and wine, we meet Christ personally. If we follow Him, drinking from His cup means we offer our own self-sacrifice, using all of our gifts for the benefit of others and to do His work on earth.

Corpus Christi Sunday

Feast of Corpus Christi
Saturday, June 1st, at 5:00 PM

Mass & Outdoor Eucharistic Procession

Please join Bishop Anjay for the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, celebrating the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Mass begins at 5:00PM, followed by the outdoor procession with police escort at 6:00pm.

The Bishop will be blessing our new mosaic of the Blessed Sacrament in monstrance (made in Venice, Italy; designed and donated by a Corpus Christi family who loves the Eucharist). The mosaic will be permanently installed on the Willis Avenue facade of the Church above the renovated stairway. The morning sunlight along with spotlights in the darkness of night, should make the mosaic a magnificent manifestation of the beauty of Christ in Holy Communion.

Mass & Indoor Procession

“YOU TOGETHER ARE MY BODY”

Pastor's Notes

Our own Bishop John Barres has again declared the month of June to be dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus in our Diocese. The primary feast day is Friday 7th of June (followed by the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Saturday 8th of June). But the whole month is a time to center our lives on the truth that “God is Love”; especially flowing from the heart of Christ.

Our parish is profoundly blessed to have a “mini-trinity” of images of the Sacred Heart. The white outdoor statue on the corner of Garfield and Willis exemplifies the “Inviting Jesus”; opening His arms and heart to all who pass by. The small statue in the lobby portrays the “Welcoming Jesus”; pointing to His heart with both hands. The original statue (over 100 years old) in the sanctuary (where the Tabernacle of the Blessed Sacrament was for nearly 50 years) manifests the “Enduring Jesus”; one hand stretching forth to draw our hearts into His. Please offer this “Prayer to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus” during this summer season for our parish family of Corpus Christi.

Yours in Christ,
Father Malcolm

PRAYER TO THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Lord Jesus Let my heart never rest until it finds You, who are its center, its love, and its happiness. By the wound in Your heart pardon the sins that I have committed whether out of malice or out of evil desires.

Place my weak heart in Your own divine Heart, continually under Your protection and guidance, so that I may persevere in doing good and in fleeing evil until my last breath.

AMEN

Sunday, 16 June 2024

Our Church Community of Corpus Christi is so blessed to have so many gifted dads and granddads, who imitate the example of St. Joseph as the foster-father of Jesus, husband to Mary, and protector of the Holy Family. Like Joseph, the carpenter of Nazareth, these men work by their words and deeds in building up the Body of Christ here in Mineola. We will pray for and honor all the fathers and grandfathers of our parish family at all the Masses during the month of June. Please write their names (both living and deceased) on the envelopes received in the mail, or additional envelopes by the doors of the church. We will keep them on the Altar and by the Tabernacle, to remind us of our fathers' perpetual love and prayers.

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus,
The child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness, and patience;
Support them in the work they have to do,
Protecting those who look to them,
As we look to You for love and salvation,
Through Jesus Christ our rock and defender,
In union with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
St. Joseph, pray for all our fathers,
Amen

Adult Confirmations

Because of the power and gift of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday, our Bishop Barres grants the faculty to parish Priests, to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for adult Catholics who missed it in their youth. We thank God for the one young lady at the Portuguese Mass and the four faithful women at the Spanish Mass, who received God's grace in the Sacred Chrism oil anointing their foreheads; imparting the peace and blessing of the Spirit of Christ.

Corpus Christi's 2024 "Continuing the Educational Mission" Scholarship Award

We are pleased to announce again this year the Corpus Christi "Continuing the Educational Mission" Scholarship award. Even though our beloved parish school has closed, the mission of educating the young people of our parish continues. It is in this spirit that the scholarship award has been established.

A committee of educators from grammar school, middle school, high school and college as well as members from the financial community was formed and worked on this program for several months and developed this scholarship.

Based upon the success from past years, we will continue to offer three scholarships this year:

- One for 2 student parishioners attending a Catholic High School
- One for a student parishioner attending, full time, a college or university.

Now three young people from our parish will each be awarded a scholarship toward their education. A scholarship award of $5,000 will be given to two students who will be attending a local Catholic High School starting September 2024 for the academic school year 2024/2025.

A scholarship award of $7,000 will be given to a matriculated college student carrying a full-time course load of a minimum 12 credits/semester who will be attending starting August/September 2024, a 2-4-year college or university for the academic school year 2024/2025.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the school, college or university in two equal payments, one half for the fall semester and the second half for the spring semester or if the academic year is divided into trimesters, half will be paid in the first trimester and the second half paid in the third trimester. The funding for these scholarships will come directly from the investment income earned from the proceeds of the sale of the Searing Avenue properties and not from any weekly or special parish collections. The announcement of the scholarship recipients will be made later this summer on or around August 3rd. The scholarship is for one year. Applications must be submitted to the rectory by June 21st, 2024.

For information on the eligibility requirements, application, timelines for submission and all related documents for this scholarship award, please visit our parish website at www.corpuschristi-mineola.net. This information will be posted on the site shortly or pick up an application at the rectory during regular office hours.

Please direct any questions regarding this scholarship to Deacon Brian Mannix at the rectory, 516-746-1223.

The last meal Jesus shared with His disciples stood out in their memory, capturing the imagination of generations of disciples right up to ourselves. He did more than share His vision with the disciples; He gave them Himself in a way he had never done before, and in a way that anticipated the death He would die for them and for all. In giving Himself in the form of the bread and wine at that meal, He was declaring Himself to be their food and drink. He was asking them to take their stand with Him, to give themselves to Him as he was giving himself to them.

It was because of that supper and of what went on there that we are here celebrating the feast of Corpus Christi today. Jesus intended His last supper to be a beginning. It was the first Eucharist.

Ever since that meal, the Church has gathered regularly in His name. Jesus continues to give himself as food and drink to us. He also continues to leave it up to His followers to take their stand with Him, to take in all He stands for, living by His values, walking in His way, even if that means the cross.

Whenever we come to Mass and receive the Eucharist, we are making a number of important statements. We are acknowledging Jesus as our bread of life, as the one who alone can satisfy our deepest hungers. We are also declaring that we will follow in His way and be faithful to Him all our lives. Celebrating the Eucharist is not something we do lightly. Our familiarity with the Mass and the frequency with which we celebrate it can dull our senses to the full significance of what we are doing. Every time we gather for the Eucharist, we find ourselves once more in that upper room with the first disciples, and the last supper. with all it signified, is present again to us.

SANTÍSIMO CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO

EVANGELIO: SAN MARCOS 14, 12-16.22-26

El primer día de la fiesta de los panes Ázimos, cuando se sacrificaba el cordero pascual, le preguntaron a Jesús sus discípulos: “Dónde quieres que vayamos a prepararte la cena de Pascua”? Él les dijo a dos de ellos: “Vayan a la ciudad. Encontrarán a un hombre que lleva un cántaro de agua; síganlo y díganle al dueño de la casa en donde entre: El Maestro manda preguntar: Dónde está la habitación en que voy a comer la Pascua con mis discípulos? Él les enseñará una sala en el segundo piso, arreglada con divanes. Prepárennos allí la cena”. Los discípulos se fueron, llegaron a la ciudad, encontraron lo que Jesús les había dicho y prepararon la cena de Pascua. Mientras cenaban, Jesús tomó el pan, pronunció la bendición, lo partió y se lo dio a sus discípulos, diciendo: “Tomen: esto es mi cuerpo”. Y tomando en sus manos una copa de vino, pronunció la acción de gracias, se la dio, todos bebieron y les dijo: “Esta es mi sangre, sangre de la alianza, que se derrama por todos. Yo les aseguro que no volveré a beber del fruto de la vid hasta el día en que beba el vino nuevo en el Reino de Dios”. Después de cantar el himno, salieron hacia el monte de los Olivos.

El evangelio expone la preparación de la última cena de Jesús con sus discípulos y la tradición de sus gestos y sus palabras en aquella noche, antes de morir. Sabemos de la importancia que esta tradición tuvo desde el principio del cristianismo. Jesús hizo y dijo cosas que quedarán grabadas en la conciencia de los suyos. Con toda razón se ha recalcado el haced esto en memoria mía. Sus palabras sobre el pan y sobre la copa expresan la magnitud de lo que quería hacer en la cruz: entregarse por los suyos, por todos los hombres, por el mundo, con un amor sin medida. Marcos nos ofrece la tradición que se privilegiaba en Jerusalén, mientras que Lucas y Pablo nos ofrecen, probablemente, las palabras con la que este misterio se celebraba en Antioquía. La Eucaristía es el sacramento que nos une a ese misterio de vida de Cristo, de Dios mismo, que nos entrega a nosotros de la forma más sencilla.

En la primera lectura, del libro del Éxodo, Moisés, bajando del monte, comunica la experiencia que había tenido de Dios, de sus palabras. Moisés rubricó la alianza de Dios con su pueblo con la sangre de los animales sacrificados. La mitad la vertió sobre el altar, la parte de Dios; y la otra mitad la asperjó sobre el pueblo. El misterio de la sangre, de su aspersión, expresa el misterio de comunión de vida entre Dios y su pueblo ya que, según se pensaba, la vida estaba en la sangre. Por ello este texto se considera como prefiguración de la Nueva Alianza que Jesús adelanta en la última cena.

"Mas Cristo ya estando presente, Sumo Sacerdote de los bienes que habían de venir, por otro más amplio y más perfecto tabernáculo, no hecho de manos, es a decir, no de esta creación, "

Hebreos 9:11

CORPO E SANGUE DE CRISTO

EVANGELHO: SÃO MARCOS 14, 12-16.22-26

No primeiro dia dos Azimos, em que se imolava o cordeiro pascal, os discípulos perguntaram a Jesus: “Onde queres que façamos os preparativos para comer a Páscoa”? Jesus enviou dois discípulos e disse-lhes: “Ide à cidade. Virá ao vosso encontro um homem com uma bilha de água. Segui-o e, onde ele entrar, dizei ao dono da casa: O Mestre pergunta: Onde está a sala, em que hei-de comer a Páscoa com os meus discípulos? Ele vos mostrará uma grande sala no andar superior, alcatifada e pronta. Preparai-nos lá o que é preciso”. Os discípulos partiram e foram à cidade. Encontraram tudo como Jesus lhes tinha dito e prepararam a Páscoa. Enquanto comiam, Jesus tomou o pão, recitou a bênção e partiu-o, deu-o aos discípulos e disse: “Tomai: isto é o meu Corpo”. Depois tomou um cálice, deu graças e entregou-lho. E todos beberam dele. Disse Jesus: “Este é o meu Sangue, o Sangue da nova aliança, derramado pela multidão dos homens. Em verdade vos digo: Não voltarei a beber do fruto da videira, até ao dia em que beberei do vinho novo no reino de Deus”. Cantaram os salmos e saíram para o monte das Oliveiras.

Os estudiosos da Bíblia são unânimes em afirmar que estes versículos contêm o texto litúrgico usado nas primeiras comunidades cristãs para celebrar a Eucaristia, texto que Marcos tomou e inseriu no seu Evangelho. A festa remonta ao século XIII. Uma religiosa agostiniana, a Beata Juliana, da Diocese de Liège, França, teria tido uma visão de Jesus em que Ele pedia uma festa pública aos seu mistério eucarístico. O bispo diocesano instituiu a festa e nível regional. Outros bispos o acompanharam. O Papa Urbano IV, em 1264, estendeu a festa a toda a Igreja com o nome de Corpus Christi. A celebração da solenidade do Corpo e Sangue do Senhor, é a manifestação pública que cremos na presença real de Jesus Cristo na Eucaristia. Ela é o coração da comunidade cristã. É a Eucaristia que faz a comunidade.

Os israelitas, para celebrar uma aliança, utilizavam o sangue de alguns animais imolados em sacrifício. Duas pessoas que quisessem jurar recíproca fidelidade, tocavam com as mãos no sangue das vítimas e assim tornavam-se irmãos. A primeira leitura de hoje, do livro do Êxodo, tem que se compreender a partir deste modo de pensar dos antigos. Deus faz uma aliança com o seu povo. Esta primeira leitura insiste na promessa que Israel assumiu de observar as prescrições estabelecidas pelo Senhor. Na segunda leitura deste domingo, da Epístola aos Hebreus, vemos como Cristo se oferece a Deus como vítima sem macha. Por isso ele é mediador de uma nova aliança.
